Green Triangle Meeting Needs YOU!

Thank you for filling out the Ninth District Green Triangle flyer last month. We have compiled the results and have created several vision statements for the district. Now it's time to share the statements and get your feedback from you! The next meeting will be on Thursday, April 1st at 6:00 pm at the Clifton Center, 2117 Payne Street. Hope to see you there! If you have any questions about that Green Triangle please call my office at 574-1109.

NO Junk Pick-up REMINDER!

The junk collection pick-up has begun in Metro Louisville. The collection will take twelve (12) weeks to complete. As a reminder there will be NO junk pickup in March for Ninth District residents. The next junk set-out period for Ninth District residents is June 18th – 20th with collection the week of June 21st. To check your junk collection week please visit, <http://www.louisvilleky.gov/> and click on "My Louisville" and then type in your street address. If you have junk you need to dispose of before the June collection please visit the Louisville Metro Waste Reduction Center, 636 Meriwether Avenue. You can dispose of up to 3 household junk items at no charge. For more information on what items are accepted please visit, http://www.louisvilleky.gov/SolidWaste/Junk+Disposal/SUBURBAN_AREAS.htm.

Monday, March 29 - April 2: Spring Break Camp from 1:00 pm - 3:00 pm each day. Communicating in Code: Students ages 9 – 14 are invited to attend this drop-in camp which introduces them to Louis Braille, who was only 12 years old when he began work on the system of reading and writing that changed the lives of blind people all over the world. They'll also learn the basics of his alphabet and practice writing on both a braille slate and a braillewriter. There will be five sessions. Instruction will be individualized so students can learn the basics or build on skills learned in earlier sessions. Call 899-2213 for information or to register.

Tuesday, March 30: Livable Louisville Forum and Reception at 5:00 pm and Forum at 6:00 pm at the Clifton Center, 2117 Payne Street. Brokensidewalk.com and Louisville's Urban Design Studio present a panel discussion about design, development, mobility, planning and much more. Come and hear Gill Holland, Bill Weyland and others and discuss issues impacting the future livability of our great hometown. Free and open to the public. Information: www.livablelouisville.org.

Wednesday, March 31: LIBA, FABA and GLOW present a Mayoral Forum at 6:00 pm, at the Clifton Center, 2117 Payne Street. Attend this event to learn about the views of all the candidates for Mayor. They will be focusing on their plans to retain, attract and expand business and economic opportunities for small business owners, women in business and independent business owners. Sponsored by Greater Louisville Outstanding Women (GLOW) Louisville Independent Business Alliance (LIBA) and the Frankfort Avenue Business Association (FABA). Free and open to the public.

Wednesday, March 31: Denim Day, All around the world, organizations coordinate community-wide Denim Days to show support of survivors and raise awareness about the crimes of sexual assault. You can also recruit other women to do the same and help raise awareness and spread the word. For more information about Denim Day go to www.thecenteronline.org.
